THE GLOBE.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF CONGRESS.

I PUBLISH now my annual Prospectus of the Daily Globe, and the Congressional Globe and Appendix, to remind subscribers, and inform those who may desire to subscribe, that Congress will meet on the first Monday of next December, when I shall recommence publishing the above-named papers. They have been published so long, that most public men know their character, and therefore I deem it needless to give a minute account of the kind of matter they will contain.

The Daily Globe will contain a report of the Debates in both branches of Congress as taken down by reporters equal, at least, to any corps of shorthand writers in this, or in any other county. A majority of them will, each, be able to report, verbatim, ten thousand words an hour, while the average number of words reported by short speakers rarely exceeds seven thousand five hundred words an hour. When the debates of a day do not make more than forty-five columns, they will appear in the Daily Globe of the next morning, which will contain, also, the news of the day, together with such editorial articles as may be suggested by passing events.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix will contain a report of all the Debates in Congress, revised by the speakers, the Messages of the President of the United States, the Annual Reports of the Heads of the Executive Departments, the Laws passed during the session, and copious indexes to all. They will be printed on a double royal sheet, in book form, royal quato size, each number containing sixteen pages. The whole will make, it is believed, between 3,800 and 4,000 pages, the long sessions for many years past having ranged between those numbers, and the next session will be a long one. This I believe is the cheapest work ever sold in any country, whether a reprint, or printed from manuscript copy, taking for data the average number of words of the long sessions since the year 1848. The average number of pages is 3,876, and the average number of words on a page is 2,337, consequently the average number of words of a long session is 9,250,772. As I have sold to subscribers that number of words for six dollars, it follows that they paid less than six and one half cents for every 100,00 words I have furnished them, while I have paid my reporters $6 29 for every 2,337 words, of this work, in manuscript.

The coming session will, without doubt, be an unusually interesting one, because the candidates of the respective parties for President and Vice President of the United States will be nominated before it closes, and, therefore, the debates will be mostly on such political questions as, it may be thought, will tend to influence public opinion in regard to the persons to be supported for these offices, and the Globe will be, as has been for many years past, the only source from which the full debates of Congress can be obtained.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix pass free through the mails of the United States, as will be seen by reading the following Joint Resolution passed by Congress the 6th of August, 1852:

Joint Resolution providing for the distribution of the Laws of Congress and the Debates thereon.

With a view to the cheap circulation of the laws of Congress and the debates contributing to the true interpretation thereof, and to make free the communication between the representative and constituent bodies:

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled, That from and after the present session of Congress, the Congressional Globe and Appendix, which contain the laws and debates thereon, shall pass free through the mails so long as the same shall be published by order of Congress; Provided, That nothing herein shall be constructed to authorize the circulation of the Daily Globe free postage.

TERMS:

For a copy of the Daily Globe, during the Session, $5 00
For one copy of the Congressional Globe and Appendix, during the session $6 00
For two copies ditto, when ordered at the same time $10 00

No attention will be paid to any order unless the money accompany it.

Bank notes, current in the section of the country where a subscriber resides, will be received at par. The whole or any part of the subscription may be remitted in postage stamps, which is preferable to any currency, except gold or silver.

I cannot afford to exchange with all the newspapers that desire the Globe; but I will send the Daily Globe during the session to the editors of those papers who publish this Prospectus three times before the first Monday of next december, and send to me one number of their paper containing it, marked with a pen to direct my attention to it.

SCOTTISH AMMRICAN JOURNAL

SECOND VOLUME,

5th November, 1858.

IN announcing a new volume of the SCOTTISH AMERICAN JOURNAL, the Proprietor begs to call attention to those features of the paper which have already secured for it a large share of support, and which ought to commend it to the patronage of a still more numerous class of readers.

The special feature of the paper is that it is a SCOTTISH journal containing notices of every event occuring in Scotland that can be regarded as of the least interest to natives of the country now residing on this continent. The news of the whole country is carefully collected and condensed, so that no event which it is necessary Scotchmen to know is ever omitted from the columns of the paper. Articles relating to Scottish subjects, original and selected, are also published from time to time and the more special character of the Journal is sustained by literary features of national interest in the form of tales, historical and miscellaneous sketches anecdotes and poetry.

While thus national in its character so far, these special features occupy comparatively limited space in the eight large pages of which the paper consists, three-fourths of which are devoted to news and other general matter calculated to be of interest to all classes of readers, and not to Scotchmen alone. A carefully compiled epitome of intelligence from England, Ireland the continent of Europe and all parts of the world is given in every number, with extracts from the leading articles of the British Journals on the most interesting public topics of the day.

With a view to increase the popular interest of the "Scottish American Journal," and to add to its value as a family paper arrangements have been made for a series of attractive tales founded chiefly on subjects connected with Scottish life. The first of these stories, entitled "Clara Howard; a tale of the Crimean War," commences with the first number of the new volume. A considerable instalment of the story will be given in every number till it is completed, and will form interesting reading for the winter evenings alike for old and young. It will be followed by a succession of other tales of equally popular character.

THE DAILY PRESS.

ON or about the first day of January, 1860, I shall commence the publication of a paper, in the city of Raleigh, to be called "THE DAILY PRESS," which I propose to continue until the close of the present session of Congress; and if, at the expiration of that time, I receive sufficient encouragement, I shall make it a permanent paper.

The necessity for such a paper in this city, is apparent to every one. The exciting times demand that our citizens should be informed daily of the transpiring of events abroad, and there is no mode of doing this, but by issuing a daily paper, containing telegraphic dispatches of the latest news, up to the moment of going to press.

I am now endeavoring to consummate arrangements with the Telegraphic Company by which I may get a report of each day's proceedings of Congress, the foreign news, and market reports, twenty-four hours in advance of the mails. To do this will incur a heavy outlay on my part, which I expect to realize, however, from the citizens of Raleigh, Fayetteville, Hillsboro,' Franklinton, Henderson, Warrenton, Goldsboro,' Greensboro', and of the various post-offices along the lines of the Railroads.

It would be a shame if the city of Raleigh, alone, did not amply support of a Daily, and I most earnestly appeal to the citizens to come forward promptly and energetically and do it. I do not expect to make money by the porject; nor do I wish to lose money. All I ask, is a sufficient patronage to enable me to pay for my telegraphic reports.

I ought to, and must have one hundred and fifty names in Raleigh, and a large list at all the places named above.

TERMS.

For one year, - - - $5 00
" six months, - - - 3 00

Payable on delivery of first number.

☞ One hundred and fifty names will secure the publication of the "DAILY PRESS."

All that I now ask of my friends is, that they will send me their names immediately [without the money] so that I can determine by the first of January what I shall do. The money is not expected until the appearance of the first number.

BY MR. & MRS. RICHARDSON,

Aided by a full Corps of Assistant Teachers.

THE EXERCISES OF THE ENSUING Scholastic Year will be resumed on Thursday, the first day of September. Applicants examined for admission and classification on Thursday and Friday, when all should be present who contemplate pursuing a Regular Course of Steady. An Gymnastic department will be added to the Male School the coming session, the object of which is to supply the great universal need of all instructions of Learning—namely, Regular Physical Training. Among the numerous exercises of this Department, designed to please as well as to benefit, are the small and broad sword exercises, infantry drill, upright and parallel bars, &c., &c. Mr. E. Prentiss Tucke, who will become associated with the Schools as Professor of Mathematics. Practical Surveying and Civil Engineering, will superintend this department. He will also give instruction in the use of the Compass, Transit, Theodolite, and Level; also in plotting Surveys, Profile making, and the estimate of earth work and Masonary. A Calisthentic Department will also be added to the Seminary, to correspond with the Gymnasium. It is designed by the friends of these Institutions to lay the foundation of a Polytechnick School for young Gentlemen, and to establish beyond contingency, a school for Young Ladies, in which, after the completion of a Regular course in our own or in other Institutions, they can be taught the Fine Arts as a speciality. To this end vigorous plans are in operation, and Buildings are in process of erection, which in all their arrangements, furnishings and appointments, are to be of the first order, and especially designed for their purpose. The Male and Female Departments are separate. Sectarianism theoretically and practically excluded. For the plan of the Schools in full, address at Wilson, N. C.

DR. JOHNSTON.

THE founder of this Celebrated Institution offers the most Certain, Speedy, and only effectual remedy, in the world for Gleets, Strictures, Seminal weakness, Pains in the Loins, Constitutional Debility, Impotency, Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Affections of the Kidneys, Palpitations of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin; and all those serious and melancholy Disorders arising from all those Destructive habits of youth which destroy body and mind. These secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of the Syrens to the Mariners Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that deadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with all confidence.

Marriage.

Married Persons, or, Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of Phisical weakness, Organic Debility, Deformities, &c., should immediately consult Dr. J., and be restored to perfect health.

He who places himself under the care of Dr, Jhonston may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician immedietely cured, and full vigor restored.

This disease is the penalty most frequently paid by those who have become the victims of improper indulgences.—Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue.—Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of Procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent. Besides being deprived the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to the body and mind arise.—The system becomes deranged, the paysical and mental powers weakened, nervous debility, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, a wasting of the frame, cough, symptoms of consumption, etc.

Nervous Debility.

Weakness of the system, Nervous Debility and premature decay generally arise from the Destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice so fatal to the healthful existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its victims, from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and Guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they ascribe to other causes the wasting of the frame, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, derangement of the Nervous System, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption, also, those serious mental effects, such as loss of memory, depression of spirits, or peculiar fits of melancholy, when the truth is, they have been caused by indulging in pernicious but alluring practices, destructive to both Body and Mind. Thus are swept from existence thousands who might have been of use to their country, a pleasure to their friends and ornaments to society.

☞ Be particular in observing the name and number, or you will mistake the place.

☞ Take notice, observe the name on the door and windows. A Cure warranted, or no Charge Made, in from One to Two Days.

NO MERCURY OR NAUSEOUS DRUG USED.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the first Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elswhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

A Certain Disease.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has exhibited the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the unconstitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains, in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till as last the palace of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending to "that bourne from whence no traveler returns," To such, therefore, Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable secresy, and from his extensive practice in the first hospitals in Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy cure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid disease.

It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful poison, mercury, ruin the constitution and even send the unfortunate sufferer to an untimely grave, or else make the residue of his life miserable.

Take Particular Notice.

Dr. J addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences,

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pain in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irratability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY—The fearful effects upon the mind are much to be dreaded: Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons, of all ages, can now judge what is the cause of their declining health. Losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale and emaciated have a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

Dr. Johnson's Invigorating Remedy for Organic Weakness.

By this great and important remedy, weakness of the organs are speedily cured, and full vigor restored. Thousands of the most nervous and debilitated, who had lost all hope, have been relieved. All impediments to Marriage, Physical or Mental Disqualification, Nervous Irritability, Troublings and or exhaustion of the most fearful kind speedily cured Dr. Johnson

Young Men.

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school—the effects of which, are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders impossible, and destroys both mind and body should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, and the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons before contemplating should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another, becomes blighted with our own.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS

The many thousands cured at this institution within the last fifteen years, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston witnessed by the reporters of the papers and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

Anthony's Instantaneous Stereoscope Views are the latest Photographic wonder. This gives an additional value, for to the beauties of inanimate nature it adds the charm of life and motion. The process is a discovery of our own, and being unknown in Europe, we receive from London and Paris large orders for Anthony's Instantaneous Views of American life and scenery.

Among other things we have just published Stereoscopic Illustrations of the scene of the FULTON STREET PRAYER MEETINGS, in which many hearts feel an interest. The particulars of this will be found in our catalogues.

GEO. E. BADGER.

Without any desire or intention of attempting to abate even the tithe of a hair of the reputation of this know nothing Nestor, as a man of ability; yet since by his own assumption of the character of counsellor and law giver to the Eastern portion of our State, and by the continual puffing and plastering of his pet organs, he seems to covet an undue and unusual prominence in the approaching campaign, we are disposed to humor him, at least to the extent of a passing notice. The undisputed Father of the last know nothing platform and the ambitious candidate for Senatorial honors in the next Legislature; he is wearied out with his long retirement and in his anxiety to escape from its monotony and to obtain the glittering prize he covets, he seems to have lost something more than his discretion.

In the long and shamefully abusive preamble which ushers in his platform, we find the following charge grandly and grandiloquently preferred against the national democracy of the Union, to wit: "The Democracy have annulled the long established compromises between the conflicting interests of the North and South, broken down the great landmarks of policy erected by our fathers and left the public councils blundering in darkness and uncertainty."

Now the whole gist of this highfaluting accusation is that the Democracy repealed the Missouri compromise; and he goes on to argue afterwards that they thereby ruined the country and that therefor they deserve political death.

Now, who would have believed that George E. Badger, with the knowledge that the eyes of his country were upon him, would arrai n an opponent, brand him as infamous and call down upon his head no less punishment than disgrace and annihilation for performing an act, when in the doing of it, he assisted him to the full extent of his ability, by speech and by vote.

Hard a pill as it may for some to swallow, the fact is so; it is a part of the history of the country and cannot be blotted out. Yes, Geo. E. Badger voted and spoke for the repeal of the Missouri compromise! How can he then abuse the democracy for acting with him? Was he honest then? Is he sincere now? Fully as sincere, we doubt not, as he was the other day when he said, "he would sooner see his right hand cut off than cast a vote for ad valorem, if it were not that the Eastern and Western compromises of the constitution had been violated by the passage of the Free Suffrage Bill." When the fact is that the land qualification of Senatorial voters never was a compromise or any part of a compromise between the East and West, or any other parties or sections; that it formed a part of the first Constitution ever adopted by the State of North Carolina, and was never opposed or even objected to until within a very few years past. The compromises of the Constitution being those points in dispute which were settled and fixed by the representatives of the two sections in the Legislature which called the convention to amend the Constitution in '35, and by which each section then pledged itself to abide. How could the alteration of a point outside of those previous pledges, exhonerate either section from its part of an express and solemn compact? The compromises of the Constitution are not indefinite and intangible as they would pretend, so as to include any matter convenient and desir d. They are well ascertained, clearly defined and easy to come at.

The clause protecting slave property from the oppression which would result from the adoption of the new Opposition hobby, is a part of the compromises; the clause regulating the qual fication of Senatorial voters was not. This being a fact, as it certainly is, Mr. Badger ought "cut off his right hand before he goes for ad valorem," and orders his subalterns "to go home and tell the people to go for it too, because HE, G. E. Badger says that it is right."

THE NEWSPAPER MANIA IN GEORGIA.—The Savannah Republican of Thursday, says:

"The little village of Waynesboro' in Burke county, where nobody thought of establishing a prining press until about a year ago, can now boast of two newspapers, and a prospectus for a third, to appear early in the coming month. More than this, they are all Democratic. The Democracy of Burke must have a strong backbone to afford a decent living to three "organs at the capital" The News, the oldest of the trio, thinks there is room for still another, and suggests that the Opposition get up an organ in the same locality. We would suggest that the Opposition wait awhile and take the chances of buying out the three."

THE COVODE SMELLING COMMITTEE.

The intergrity and independence of the Presidential office are just as important as the preservation of either of the other branches of the Government from corruption or other improper influence on the part of the Executive. The harmonious working of the Government can only be secured by keeping each branch within its proper constitutional sphere. If either one of the three co-ordinate branches can usurp a supremacy of the others, it will gradually draw to itself power and anarchy, or despotism will be the consequence. The Constitution contemplated a system of equality and co-ordinate independence.

It is a matter of principle, not of party or personal prejudice, which should enlist every lover of his country against the improper and illegal conduct of the House of Representatives in appointing a Committee to watch over and investigate generally the conduct of the President. It would degrade the Chief Executive to a position exposed to espionage, and subject to the control of a Congressional majority. The appointment of a Committee of Public Safety would be the first step toward a reign of terror. Unjust as the step is toward the President personally, its dangers are vastly greater as a precedent. The constitutional rights of the Presidency are invaded and struck down, and the plainest maxims of the common law violated to secure a party advantage.

We would not abridge, in the smallest degree, the right or power of Congress to appoint a committee to investigates any malfeasance or abuse on the part of the officers of the Government; but there should be something definite to shape the action of this body thus constituted to seek for matter of impeachment. Without a probable cause to support it, such action on the part of Congress would lead to interminable inquisitions, impertiment interferences and neglect of the proper business of legislation, leading to no good result.

Are we ready to commence a system of prying and stool-pigeoning into the conduct of officers, without any foundation but the shadowy basis of of rumor, hearsay and slander? The only examples to justify the passage of the Covode resolutions are the Hiss Smelling Committee in Massachusetts, the equally dignified Police Nativity Committee in the New York Board of Aldermen, and the more recent explosin of the virtuous Brady in the same august body. Covode will go down to infamy in company with a goodly number of smellers, spies, eavesdroppers and busybodies.—N. Y. Times.

The Rail-Road.

We belive our citizens have never been more interested upon the subject of the Rail-Road from this place to Tarboro', and from thence to tha Coal Fields in Rockingham county, than they are at this time. Never have they felt more its importance, and never have they had higher hopes of success.

The subscription of our citizens to the Road has been steadily advancing, and as the conviction of its necessity increases, many will come forward who have stood aloof, and others who have subscribed will double or quadruple their subscriptions.

It can be demonstrated that our town and county are capable of doing a good deal towards starting this enterprise. Active monied capital, we know, is not as abundant as we could desire, but in a townw here the real estate alone is assessed for taxes at over $550,000, and in a county where the landed estate is assessed at $1,000,000, not to mention the large amount of other property vitally interested in the building of the Road, we think there must be adility to risk at least 2 or $300,000 in an enterprise, which promises certainly to double at least the real estate,

But it is of great importance to the success of the enterprise that our fellow-citizens of those counties through which the Road is designed to pass, should feel a deep interest in it and be willing to render us efficient assistance in getting it up Already we are advised there is much interest felt, but in order to increase this interest, we learn an effort is making to secure the services of a gentleman who is warmly devoted to the success of this Road, to visit those counties and address the people upon the subject. Such an arrangement could hardly fail to excite a general feeling in favor of the enterprise.

Washington N. C. Dispatch.

A BEAUTIFUL EXTRACT—WOMAN—Oh! the priceless value of the love of a true woman! Gold cannot purchse a gem so precious! Title and honors confer upon the heart no such serene happiness. In our darkest moments, when disappointment and ingratitude, with corroding care, gather thick around, and even gaunt poverty menaces with his skleeton finger, it gleams around the soul with an angel's smile. Time cannot mar its brilliancy, distance but strenghens its influence, bolts and bars cannot limit its progress, it follows the prisoner into his dark cell and sweetens the homely morse that appeases his hunger, and, in the silence o midnight, it plays around his heart, and in his dreams he folds to his bosom the form of her who loves on still, though the world has turned coldly, from him. The couch made by the hands of a loved one is soft to the weary limbs of the sick sufferer, and the potion administered by the same hand loses half its bitterness. The pillow carefully adjusted by her brings repose to the fevered brain, and her words of kind encouragement revives the sinking spirit. It would almost seem that God, compassionating woman's first great frailty, had planted this jewel in her breast, whose heaven like interest should cast into forgetfulness man's remembrance of the fall, by building up in his heart another Eden where perennial flowers forever bloom and crystal waters gush from exhaustless fountains.—Stratjan.

DEATH FROM EATING SEALED CAN FRUITS.—A United States soldier, named Herzon, died a short time since at Steilacoom, near Puget,s Sound, through eating strawberries which had been preserved in a tin can. It was found that this poison had formed through the acidity of the fruit coming in contact with the metal of which the can was composed; the effect, when eaten, being to ulcerate the stomach, and finally to cause death.

A PHRENOLOGIST has been examining Queen Victoria's head, and says that he finds the bump of adhesiveness was sadly deficient if it existed there at all. In justice, however, to this gentleman, we must state that Queen's head under examination was a postage-stump.—Pittsburg Post.

The First Woman Executed in Minnesota—Particulars of the Scene.

We learn from the St. Paul Pioneer, of March 24th, that Mrs. Dilansky was hanged on Friday, the 23d. The crime alleged against her was that of poisoning her husband on the 12th of March, 1859. Every effort had been made by her counsel to secure her acquittal, but without effect. She escaped once from the hall of the jail, and after a week's absence was retaken with a person said to be her paramour. At the scaffold the following scene occured:

When the prisoner arrived upon the platform, she was led forward and kneeled upon the drop. the clergy, jailor, and the Sisters of Charity and other ladies in the same posture around her. About five minutes were then spent in reading prayers by the clergy, in which she seemed to take a deep interest. —Upon rising she was asked if she had anything to say. She said:

"I die without having had any mercy shown me or justice. I die for the good of my soul, and not for murder. May you all profit by my death. Your courts of justice are not courts of justice—but I will yet get justice in Heaven. I am a guilty woman, I know, but not of this murder, which was committed by another. I forgive everybody who did me wrong. I die a sacrifice to the law. I hope you all may be judged better than I have been, and by a more righteous judge. I die prepared to meet my God."

Dr. Miller, the deputy sheriff, then approached her with the rope, when she exclaimed, "Dr. Miller, how can you stain your hands by putting that rope around my neck—the instrument of my death?" He assured her that duty compelled him to do it, and she made no resistance, and only said, "Do, for God's sake, put it on so it will not suffocate me." After it had been arranged, Dr. Miller took the black cap from his pocket, and proceeded to put it on her head, when she said, "Be sure that my face is well covered." All this took place in less time than it will take to read it, during which she said several times: "God have mercy—God have mercy on my soul." Her last words were, "Lord Jesus Christ, receive my soul."

She was requested to take a step forward on the drop, and then, everything being prepared, Dr. Miller made a motion to Sheriff Tullis, who pulled the fatal rope, and in an instant she fell. The fall was about four feet, and the machinery was so nicely adjusted that the noise was scarcely heard outside of the enclosure. There was scarcely any movement in the body after it dropped; a slight convulsive motion and a heaving of the chest, was all that was observed. The body was allowed to hang about twenty minutes, during which time prayers were read audibly by the clergy, who remained kneeling on the platform.

Her demeanor on the scaffold was excellent. She was not defiant or stoical, neither did she shed a tear. It is the opinion of many that she expected a pardon or reprieve to the last moment. The most disgusting feature connected with the affair, says the Pioneer, was the eagerness and persistency with which females sought to obtain eligible places to view the dying agonies of one of their own sex.

BRIEF AND THRILLING ROMANCE.

CHAPTER I.

In a beautiful log cabin in the mountains of the Old North State our tale opens. The loftiest trees hung out their green leaves in perfection, and the high rocks caught the gray mist of the morning and pressed them to their rough bosoms, until they melted in tears against their sides. A lovely maiden was sitting by a table, combing her hair with a fine tooth comb, a manly form enters the door, and stealthily creeps up behind her and—

CHAPTER II.

"Ah John!" exclaims the lovely heiress of the beautiful cabin and the extensive potato patch behind it, "you oughtn't to do that way!"

"Lay it all on my love, gal!"

"Love! There is no such thing among folks!"

The turtle dove
Only knows love;"

As the poet sings!"

"Then you don't love me?"

"No!"

"No! Jane, call back that word!"

"No! oh! no! Come back here!" Twon't come John—'tis gone!

"Then I'm gone, too! And the impassioned youth rushed from the lonely cabin like a maniac.

CHAPTER III.

Sadly did the young man run along the road, while the girl, firm and submisive in the discharge of her duty, proceeded to fry some onions for dinner. Meanwnile the youth rushed madly on; the burning fever of his heart maddened in his brain, and he thought of self destruction. Jerking his pocket-comb from his vest pocket, vainly did he attempt to cut his throat, Nature however, had blessed him with a tough hide, and it proved two strong for him—he rushed to a wagon rut, where there was water at least two inches deep, and he flung himself into or rather upon it. There he lay for full five seconds, when Henry Cieft, the father of the gal, passed by.

CHAPTER IV.

He soon unfolded his sad tale to his friend and finally consented to live if Henry would give him a chew of tobacco. He returned to the house, and in his haggard countenance, Jane saw his unhappy condition.—He never got over it, though. About twenty years after, he fell from a wagon, and his neck was broken for a sheriff had thoughtlessly slipped a rope around it.

THE JAPANESE EMBASSY—ITS EXPECTED ARRIVAL.—The Japanese Embassy, which will shortly arrive in Washington, consists of eighteen persons of rank and fifty-three servants. The Envoy are the princes of Booren and Awad and their suite consists of a Chief Censor, a Vice-Governor of the Treasury, a Vice-Governor for Foreign Affairs, a Secretary of the first rank, and two of the second rank, two Inspectors of the first rank and two of the second, two Treasury officers, two Interpreters and two Physicians. Mr. Harriss, our Minister to Japan, in a letter dated at Jeddo, Nov. 15th, says:

They will embark on board the U. S. steamer Powhatan at this place, between the 1st and 22d of Februrary next, and may be expected to reach Aspinwall in fifty to sixty days after their departure. He suggests that the Embassy should be conveyed from Aspinwall directly to Washington, without touching at any other port in the United States.—The reason given for this it that it is desirable that the first impression of the Japanese of our country should be received at a place less excitable than any of our large seaports. They will bring two interpreters with them, who speak a little English, but speak the Dutch language fluently. It will not be difficult to get other persons to act as interpreters to them. The probability is that they will reach this country on or about the 1st of May.

The English Government, through Lord Elgin, tried every means to get the Japanese to send an embassador direct to England, and offered them any conveyance or accommodation they might require, but they declined.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE KANGAROO.

New York, April 6.—The Kangaroo arrived this morning with Liverpool dates to the 21.

The question of the annexation of Savoy has been definitely settled by a treaty between Sardinia and France. The proposition to submit the matter to a ballot was rejected by a large majority of both houses. The municipal council of Nice voted against annexation, and sent a deputation to Turin on the subject.

Signor Farina had formally presented to the King of Sardinia the votes of the Emilian Provinces in favor of annexation to Piedmont. The King said in reply that he accepted the vote, as also that of Romagna, but at the same time would not falter in his deep devotedness to the Pope.

The Pope had addressed a monitory epistle to the King breaking off all relations with him, and excommunicating him.

It is reported that Piedmont wants a loan of 150,000,000 francs.

Austria declines to renew diplomatic relations with Sardinia, owing to flagrant violations of the treaty of Zurich.

LATER FROM MEXICO.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Dates from Pensacola, to the 6th inst, state that Miramon commenced withdrawing troops from before Vera Cruz on the morning of the 21st.

Juarez's forces were so near out of powder that it was believed had Miramon remained longer, he would have captured the city.

On the evening of the 23d, the steamer Indianola was brought to an anchorage off the city, and a bark was captured to the southward, in the neighborhood of Alvarado. The barque bore Spanish colors, and was professedly bound to Galveston. She gave as an excuse for being found so near the Mexican coast, a disordered compass. She is strongly suspected as being the same vessel mentioned in the intercepted despatches of Miramon.

The Indianola has been purchased by Juarez, and placed in the service of the Government.

THE NEW MS BIBLE FROM MOUNT SINAI—The new MS. Bible discovered by Prof. Tischendorf in the library of the monastery on Mount Sinai is to be printed in St. Petersburg with great magnificence, under his care and at the cost of the Imperial Government. Prof. Tischendorf finds strong reasons for fixing its date in the first half of the fourth century; and he says, that as a means of determining the text of the sacred writings, especially those of Apostles, it is far more important than even the MS. of the Vatican. The age of the new MS has already been the subject of lively controversy, a concerted attack having been made upon Prof. Tischendorf's deductions by a number of St. Petersburg Academicians. His replies were, however, satisfactory that his opponents have become converts to his belief.

This MS is the oldest MS of the Bible which has been preserved in the Christian world. It is far older than any other except the Vatican MS., to which it is superior in age and in completeness; for the MS. of the Vatican lacks five books entirely and one in part. Its authority is also confirmed by the quotations of the early Fathers, which agree with it more nearly than any other MS.

Prof. Tischendorf has already filled ten folio volumes with Bible documents, and may be presumed to know as much about the correct verison of the Bible as anybody. His seventh edition of the New Testament is the standard. He wll illustrate this edition profusely with philosophic face-similes: and while he is sure that the original MS will, as soon as it becomes known, be esteemed throughout Caristendom as a great national treasure for Russia, he hopes to make the idicio princeps of it a worthy monument of imperial munificence, and one which the whole Christian world shall receive with grateful thanks.

TO PRESERVE BEEF.—Peeople get tired of bacon and fowl during the long summer months and few families can afford to kill a shote or lamb every time they want a dish of fresh meat. A change to beef would frequently be very agreeable to many, but then dried beef becomes so hard, and few know how to preserve it any lenght of time without drying it. To obviate this difficulty, we give the following mode of pre serving beef for any desirable length of time.

Add two lbs. brown sugar to eight gallons of water also one quart of molasses, four ounces of nitre, and fine salt till it will float an egg. This is enough for two quarters of beef.

A BEAUTIFUL SCENE.—Night is upon the earth. Darkness rests in the valley and on the hill-toy

But the moon rising drives away the clouds, dispels the gloom. As she rolls upward, the stars gather around her. Come with me and look upon a scens of intensely exciting interest.

Enter this chamber softly—it is the sanctuary of innocence—the abode of love and peace. Bending beside a table, behold a maiden—a blooming girl of of seventeen—on her knees. Her cherry lips move; her graceful form is anxiously swayed to and fro. She is laboring from anexcitment. The cool air gushes in upon her through the lattice. She is sterengthened. Could we view a more interesting picture?

"Ah!"

Was that a word a long drawn sigh! Listen again.

"Ah!"

Can she be conscious of our presence? Her hand drops on the floor, has she lost a jewel?—Her dark eye in wild frenzy flashes. The sweet smile has vanished from her features. But lo! it returns in triumph. She speaks!

"Mary! Mary!—I've killed that old bug at last."

Look at this!

MY Ledger tells me that Hotel and Bar accounts are growing entirely too fast for a healthy business, Persons interested had better call and pay, as I have not time to run around after these little bills, and will have to employ an agent who will take his commissions out of the debtor. All well regulated Hotels are conducted on the CASH system.

MEDICAL.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low liying, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only Scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Eruptive and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Blains and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Rheumatism, Syphilitic and Mercurial Diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Debility, and, indeed, all Complaints arising from Vitiated or Impure Blood. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

AYER'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

BLOOD FOOD

In presenting you with DR. FATON'S INFANTILE COLDIAL we desire to state its superiority over every nostrum that nurse or quack has heretofore offered you

First It is the preparation of a regular physician, who is well qualified from much experience in infantile complaints to prescribe for them. Secondly—It is entirely free from paregoric or opiate of any kind, and consequently relieves by removing the suffering of your child, instead of deadening its sensibilities Thirdly—It is put up with great care, as a comparison of it with any other article for infantile complaints will show; the very roots from which it is distilled being dug from the forests under the direction of Dr. Faton, many of them by his own hands. Fourthly—It is perfectly harmless and cannot injure the most delicate infant, and is a certain cure and relief in all the following cases, which is its chief merit over every other preparation viz:

FOR ALL COMPLAINTS ATTENDING TEETHING; sach as DYSENTERY COLIC, &c, also, for softening the gums and relieving pain. For regulating the bowels it is unequalled. For Cold in the Head it is a sure relief. For CROUP, the most fatal and trying of diseases, it can be relied on with perfect confidence; and being a powerful anti-spasmodic in all cases of convulsions or fits, we earnestly recommend you to loose no time in procuring it—Lastly—it cost so much more than other preparations of the kind, that we cannot afford such long advertisements as can those whose whole expense is their advertising: for the same reason, it commends itself as the most reliable to all mothers. In all cases, the directions wrapped around each bottle, must be strictly followed. Price, 25 cents per bottle.

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption, as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years practice—as a last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of physiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from the use of which Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over two thousand consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Cough, Cold, Head-ache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of of appetite, or pain in the side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are Depressed or your Organs relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid or diseased in any manner whatever one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthful action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female complaints and Weakness the sufferer, after trying other remedies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum Scrofulas and other like complaints. Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefitted by its use; it gives strength to the body and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success.

For full directions, see circulars. Price $1 per bottle.
